Privacy Policy

These terms apply to the following website: www.shsindbad.com

1. We protect users' privacy rights and keep the personal information of online users confidential.
We shall not disclose such information to others without the users' consent, except as otherwise provided by law. Only when government agencies require us to disclose users' personal information in accordance with statutory procedures shall this website provide users' personal information to law enforcement agencies in accordance with the law or for the purpose of maintaining public security, and shall not bear any legal liability.
2. Users voluntarily register their personal information. When registering, users must provide personal information, including user name, gender, age, date of birth, ID number, phone number, mailing address, and email address, etc. This website has no obligation to verify the authenticity of the above information. Only with the above information can this website provide users with safer, more thoughtful, and personalized services. All information provided by users during registration is voluntary, and users have the right to refuse to provide such information at any time. Users who register personal information agree that this website may make good-faith use of such information.
3. This website uses server software with high reliability currently available in the industry, supporting secure encryption protocols. We will use this software and adopt multiple methods to ensure to the greatest extent that the information provided by users is not illegally accessed.
4. Jointly maintain the security of usernames and passwords. Once a user successfully registers, they will receive a unique username and password. Users must properly safeguard their usernames and passwords and shall not disclose them to others; otherwise, the risks and losses arising therefrom shall be borne by the users themselves. Users shall be fully responsible for all activities and events conducted under their usernames. Users may change their passwords at any time as needed. If users discover any illegal use of their usernames, please notify this website immediately.
5. The services provided by this website will automatically collect information about visitors, including the number of visitors, visit time, pages visited, referring addresses, etc. This website will use this information to analyze our servers and manage the website. This website uses cookie functionality to prevent users from repeatedly viewing the same content and to provide the latest information. The website will store and retrieve user login information, but we will not use cookies to track any personal information. Even when cookies are used, unless you explicitly inform us, we will not know your personal information.

6. This website contains links to other sites. We are not responsible for the content and privacy policies of these sites.
7. At any time, if you believe that we have violated the above principles, please notify us via email at fangbingbing@shsindbad.com, and we will make every effort to resolve the issue immediately within a reasonable and appropriate scope.
